

Recruit Academy Syllabus:

Recruit academy is a six-month blended (online & in-person) training program to provide recruits with the foundational knowledge and skill set to respond to emergency incidents. The program meets national standards for fire & emergency services and completion of the program will result in the following nationally recognized certifications:

- OSHA/NFPA Hazardous Materials Operations - (HMO)
- NFPA Firefighter I- (FF1) ((Structure))
- NWCG Firefighter Type 2- (FFT2) ((Wildland Fire))

Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) Courses:

- ☐ IS100- Introduction to the Incident Command System (2 Hrs)
- ☐ IS700- Introduction to the National Incident Management System(3.5 Hrs)
- ☐ IS5.A- An Introduction to Hazardous Materials (7 Hrs)

International Fire Service Training Association (IFSTA) Courses:

- ☐ Hazardous Materials Operations (24 Hours ((One full weekend, 1st weekend in February))
- ☐ Firefighter I (1 Chapter/Week, 15 Weeks Total Online + 5-6 Saturday Hands-On Training)

National Wildfire Coordinating Group (NWCG) Courses:

- ☐ S190, Introduction to Wildland Fire Behavior (7 Hrs, Classroom)
- ☐ L180, Human Factors in The Wildland Fire Service (4 Hrs, Classroom/Online)
- ☐ S130, Firefighter Training (Approximately 30 Hrs; 12-15 Classroom, 10-15 Field Exercise)

American Safety & Health Institute Course (ASHI):

- ☐ Basic First Aid/CPR/AED (~4Hrs, Classroom or Blended)

Projected 2024 Recruit Academy In-Person Training Schedule:

January 6: Orientation, FEMA Registration, ResourceOne Registration

January 20: Basic First Aid/CPR/AED; Firefighter I skills- PPE, Incident Safety

February 3 & 4: Hazardous Materials Operations (+50 Question State Exam)

February 24: S130

March 9: S190/L180

March 23: Firefighter I Skills- Equipment

April 13: Firefighter I Skills- Structure Search, Victim Removal, & FF Survival

April 27: Wildland Fire Incident Simulation OR water handling (TBD, Weather dependent)

May 11: Wildland Fire Incident Simulation OR water handling (TBD, Weather dependent)

June 1: Firefighter I Skills- LIVE FIRE (Fire Behavior & Fire Suppression)

TBD: Graduation Ceremony (June 17th)

*May 10/May 13: EXAM NIGHTS (Upon completion of the curriculum and hands-on training, recruits will complete a 100-question (multiple choice) exam to receive certification.